

Charlene Sauer awarded Dr. Roger C. Rademacher Memorial Scholarship for Clinical Excellence

Committee members for the Dr. Roger C. Rademacher Memorial Scholarship for Clinical Excellence are pleased to announce that Charlene Sauer, RN of McGregor, Iowa has been named a recipient of a scholarship. Charlene is currently enrolled in the Master's Program at University of Iowa to further her education to become a Family Nurse Practitioner.

Charlene has completed advanced coursework and successfully accomplished clinical applications for infant, children and adolescents, adult, geriatrics and women's health. Charlene demonstrates strong leadership skills with the ability to be an effective educator. She has volunteered at many levels in area communities, professional organizations, and she continues to devote her life to serve others. In her application, Charlene shared that Dr. Rademacher was her biggest cheerleader and greatest fan. She stated that Dr. Rademacher always had the ability to pick out others that had the capabilities to excel and challenged them to set and reach higher goals in their profession. In her application Charlene wrote, "My goal in becoming a family nurse practitioner is to leave this world better than I found it." Charlene is employed at Prairie du Chien Memorial Hospital as a Home Health Registered Nurse.

The Dr. Roger C. Rademacher Memorial Scholarship Committee includes Mattie Rademacher, Chairperson; Wendy (Rademacher) Willox; Dick Beinborn; and Helen Valley.

The scholarship was established to honor the life of Dr. Roger Rademacher in recognition of his dedicated service to area communities and his passion for rural medicine and rural healthcare. The Clinical Excellence Awards Scholarship is funded by friends and colleagues of Dr. Roger C. Rademacher with matching funds by Prairie du Chien Memorial Hospital.
